

ILA35 General Membership Meeting
October 25, 2006 (ILA-35 Luncheon)
Groton, Connecticut, USA

1. Call to Order: President Langhorne Bond, 1310 hours

2. Finances: Treasurer Erik Johannessen reported that the Association continues to operate within its budget, and that this convention is expected to meet financial expectations.

3. Election Results: Chairman Charles Schue, for the Nominations and Elections committee, reported:

President: Re-elected to a 1-year term

Hon. Langhorne Bond      - Bond and Associates

Directors: Elected to three-year terms:

Dr. Robert Lilley                      - Aviation Management Associates, Inc.
Dr. Durk van Willigen                - Reelektronika
Dr. Paul Williams                    - Trinity House
Mr. Jacques Manchard               - French Aids to Navigation

Langhorne Bond remains President, so his Director position becomes vacant for the current year. Under ILA bylaws, the candidate next in line for a Director position fills the vacancy for this year. Elected to this one-year term is

Dr. David Diggle                      - Ohio University

Leaving the board this year as elected directors are Thomas Celano and William Roland

The president and directors take office at the close of the 2006 Convention and Technical Symposium in Groton, CT, October 23-25, 2006. See www.loran.org (EVENTS) for information.

The ILA thanks its membership for participating in the election as candidates and as voters. We look forward to a successful 2006-7!
